Grammar

1. Definition of word and noun.
2. Identify pronouns.
3. Rules for singular to plural.
4. Be able to change a sentence from singular to plural or plural to singular.
5. Be able to change the gender in a sentence.
6. Know the meaning and spelling of your 50 verbs. These will be verbs on the test.
7. Be able change the tense in a sentence and write a sentence as directed (He/she (singular and plural, I, we, You (informal and formal))).
8. Write 5 sentences about yourself, your school or your family. I will choose one to write. Practice all three.

We will take a practice Grammar test in the class next time. Please come to class so you can understand the format of the test.

1. For Grammar homework this week, please practice writing sentences in You (formal and informal). Also print the sheet again if needed to practice writing sentences in other tenses. Try to use a noun in your sentence along with the verb. Most of you have been doing that. I am proud of you!

2. Write 5 sentences about your family.

For example: I eat.

Better sentence: I eat rice every day.

Example: He reads.

Better sentence: He reads a book. or She reads on Thursdays. We read books in March. Use the nouns that you have learned.
