Panjabi Class Homework

1st grade homework week of 5/30/2020

WJKK WJKF

Thanks for attending the online class.

I have been sending some reading lessons from two weeks. Parents you know your child's potential more than me. If you think your child is slow in learning to read new words that's ok just spend little more time on the words that are hard for him/her to read. Keep repeating those words couple of times throughout the day.

Read both the reading lessons given to you and learn vocabulary for both the lessons we have done up till now. Yow will have a written test on June 13th.
