

Translate the following sentences in to Punjabi.

He reads a Punjabi book.
She reads a Punjabi book.
They read English books.
The tall boy goes to school.
The tall girl goes to school.
The tall boys go to school.
The tall girls go to school.
The yellow mango is sweet.
The yellow mangoes are sweet.

The small thali(थाली) is very heavy.
The small thalis are very heavy.
He will drink cold water with pizza.
She will drink cold water with pizza.
The red sparrow is beautiful.
The peacock is a beautiful bird. (masculine)
Today, she will buy sour grapes.
He will buy sour grapes in the evening.
His older sister works at the store.

His younger brother works at the store.
His older sisters work at the hospital.
His younger brothers work at the hospital.
My mother opens the window first.
My father closes the door above.

Read the attached story out loud about the wise elephant. Circle the nouns and underline all the pronouns in the story.

VIRSA

1. Practice numbers 30 to 60 in Punjabi.
2. Practice time from page 51 to 54 in Punjabi.
3. History questions 110 to 130
4. Japji Sahib pauris 18 to 21